

FROM ACCENT TO EXCELLENCE

From Accent to Excellence

Break Your Bamboo Ceiling

KEYNOTE AND SEMINAR OVERVIEW

For non-native English speaking professionals, leaders and executives, speaking in front of the audience can be very daunting. Like it or not, your success depends a great deal upon your ability to communicate effectively whether you are running a meeting, making a presentation, conducting an interview, or interacting with peers. You may blame corporate America for your lack of promotion to executive positions. It's their fault they cannot understand your accent. What to do? Change your attitude and take action!

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- * Provide life-changing message to non-native speakers
- * Boost your confidence to speak up
- * Share insight of turning your accent into an asset
- * Teach you simple and practical tips for managing your accent
- * Enhance your self-esteem and happiness
- * Improve your working relationships with others
- * Increase your success at work and in life

WHAT LIA BRINGS

- * Relevant, current, and practical information
- * Passion, humor, and inspiration
- * Presentations tailored to a specific audience
- * 20 plus years of testimonials and lessons learned
- * Living proof of transformation from accent to excellence

WHY LIA?

Lia Bai is a communication expert, speaker, and coach. She was once a foreign student who spoke "broken English". Now she is known for her authenticity, humor, and passion for helping non-native English speaking professionals, leaders, and executives improve their communication skills. As an award-winning storyteller and humorist, Lia is living proof of transformation from accent to excellence herself. With 20 plus years of diverse experience, she understands your needs and pain. She empowers, entertains and inspires you to achieve your best.

